Julie Romero Receives Kiwanis Club “Distinguished President” Award

February 2009- Julie Romero, now the Immediate Past President of the Homestead/South Dade Kiwanis Club, was awarded the “Distinguished President” Award by the Florida Kiwanis and the Kiwanis Governor. Mrs. Romero was recognized as a Distinguished President for her leadership, for growing the Homestead/South Dade’s club with new members and for her diligence attending Kiwanis State and International events. The Homestead/South Dade Kiwanis Club was also awarded the Distinguished Club Award, for meeting and exceeding their Kiwanis goals and for their many hours of community service. In addition, the club received an Honorable Mention in five other areas.

Excited by the recognition the club received, Julie stated, “We had an awesome year! It was an honor to serve as the Homestead/South Dade President. We have such good people in our club; it is a joy to volunteer with them.”
