FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Community Bank of Florida's Lorenzo Delzoppo installed as Chairman of ACAMS South Florida Chapter

February 2009- The South Florida Chapter of the Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists (ACAMS) recently installed Lorenzo Delzoppo, Chief Compliance Officer at Community Bank of Florida, as their Chairman of the Board. The Installation Reception was held at the Sports Club LA in the Four Season Hotel and Tower on Brickell Avenue.

ACAMS South Florida was founded on November 7, 2007 by an Executive Board composed of professionals from the AML field active in the South Florida region. The Chapter's role is to assist the international association in its mission to advance the professional knowledge, skills and experience of those dedicated to the detection and prevention of international money laundering by representing the association to the local members and community. One of the Chapter's goals is to promote ACAMS as a platform for career development and professional networking for individuals. In addition, the Chapter is a resource for financial institutions and related businesses to identify specialists in the rapidly expanding anti-money laundering field by organizing meetings and events of local interest for members and non-members.
